

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE MONA BISMARCK AMERICAN CENTER

To keep American art in the vanguard, it must be seen and heard internationally.

The American Friends of the Mona Bismarck American Center is an international community of art patrons who understand the importance of the relationship between France and the United States to both cultures and, indeed, to the world.

A minimum annual membership of $5,000* provides vital resources for the only institution in France dedicated to 20th and 21st century American art. Members receive a range of benefits in recognition of their generosity, including:

- Acknowledgement on donor listing on website, annual report, and other materials as appropriate.
- Personalized cultural concierge service when visiting Paris, one time per year. Mona Bismarck American Center staff will work with members to organize customized itineraries of exhibition openings, behind-the-scenes access to cultural events, gallery visits, restaurant recommendations, fashion/shopping assistance, and more.
- Invitation to purchase a table/tickets to annual dinner in Paris.
- Invitations to partner events in the United States.

I wish to become a member of the American Friends of Mona Bismarck American Center with a $5,000 gift.
